SISTER CITY COMMITTEE
08 August 2011
MINUTES

Call to Order

Chair Jim Hohensee called the meeting to order. Present: Vice Chair Carole Mosher, Vera Glywa, Bob McGowan, Bob Glywa, Ivan Novikov, Dick Bills, Cindy Dwigans, Phil Monnig and Yulia Matskevych. Also present: Ron Shaffer, AJ Hoyt, Emily Kotay and Chris Engel

Bob McGowan noted the great attendance.

Emily Kotay was introduced to the committee. Emily is a student and intern in City Hall. Previously, she was a Peace Corp volunteer in Ukraine for two years.

Minutes

Minutes from July 11, 2011 were approved.

Exchange Student Update

Carole reported Vira will be arriving Wednesday morning. She and Yulia will be picking her up at the airport. On Friday evening (8/12) the patio at Johnny's has been reserved for a welcome gathering.

Jazzfest

Bob reported Oleg was denied a visa because he was young and has no assets and there is a fear he will not return to Ukraine. Since he is vital to the band if he is unable to obtain a visa no one will be coming. There was further discussion about the visit including the fundraising concert at Asbury Church and the dinner event at Mayor Shaffer's.

Dolyna Days

Ukrainian Independence Day will be celebrated at the Blue Moose on August 24 at 5.30pm. Bob McGowan made a motion to approve the purchase of up to 25 small tabletop Ukrainian flags for the event. Phil seconded and the motion carried. Vera will purchase the flags.

Committee Vacancy

Jim asked members to brainstorm new potential members for discussion next month.

The next meeting will be Monday, September 12, 2011.

We also make donations to the Strawberry Hill Museum (which has a Ukrainian Room exhibit), the Ukrainian Studies Program at the University of Kansas and other organizations that promote Ukrainian culture and knowledge. This year we have decided to institute a scholarship for a deserving Ukrainian Club student that will be going on to college.

If you will not be attending the picnic but want to pay dues or make a donation, please mail your check to the Club Treasurer, Irene Thompson, at 5328 Birch St., Roeland Park, KS 66205.
